

Jan. 1923.

The St. Margaret's Congregational Meeting was held in the Parish Hall for the first time in January, the Rev. R. C. Cowling presiding.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by the Rector and the roll of all the Baptized people and Communicants of the Church was called.

The Secretaries of the different organizations of the Church ^{read} their reports.

A secretary was elected by the members present.

The Meeting then adjourned to meet the Second Friday in April.

Respectfully Submitted
